CADASTRAL SURVEYORS LICENSING BOARD OF NEW ZEALAND

Summary

The Board has had a busy 12 months dealing with administrative requirements and complaints about Surveyors from the both the Surveyor-General and the Public.

There has been an increase in the number of complaints against cadastral surveyors who had allegedly failed to meet the required standards for cadastral survey. However, in most cases these complaints were found to be outside the Board's jurisdiction and were referred to either LINZ or Survey and Spatial New Zealand (formerly the NZ Institute of Surveyors).

While the Board is pleased to have seen a decrease in the number of significant failure notices to comply with Rules for Cadastral Survey during the year, there is a concern that a significant proportion of surveyors do not meet first time compliance when datasets are first lodged with LINZ.

The Board has been consulting with the Surveyor-General with relation to the review of the Rules for Cadastral Survey as set out under Section 49 of the Act. The rules are one aspect that the Board must consider when assessing any surveyor for alleged misconduct.

The Boards Standards are also being reviewed to better reflect the competencies required of a modern day cadastral surveyor and the technological advances. Also being reviewed is the professional examination being conducted by Survey and Spatial New Zealand on behalf of the Board.

Changes to the Board's administration support and its processes will be implemented in the coming year. With a new website the board will improve the quality of information to the public and surveyors on the role of the CSLB.

The Board is pleased to see that the number of licences issued during the year is higher again this year, showing that the profession and the Board's licensing regime are capable of responding to the market. There is a demand for licensed cadastral surveyors in New Zealand, with many firms unable to secure staff. We understand that all graduates from the University of Otago have been offered positions in 2019 (approx. 50), and we are now seeing more overseas surveyors migrating to NZ to address the shortfalls.

In April we were invited to participate as part of the Professional Services Recognition and Registration Study. This discussed reciprocity with Surveyors in Australia and the UK post Brexit to see what agreements were in place and barriers to the movement of professional surveyors.

Jurisdiction

The Cadastral Surveyors Licensing Board of New Zealand is constituted by section 10 of the Cadastral Survey Act 2002.

Functions

The functions and duties undertaken by the Board are set out in section 11 of the Cadastral Survey Act. (See Appendix A).

In summary, the primary function of the Board is the licensing of suitably qualified surveyors with current competence to conduct cadastral surveys and lodge them in the cadastral record. For this purpose, the Board sets standards for the education and the practical experience required to obtain and retain a cadastral licence.

The Board exercises disciplinary powers in cases where a cadastral surveyor is charged with negligence, incompetence, falsification, or failure to observe the Rules for Cadastral Survey. The Board has the authority to suspend or cancel a licence or place a surveyor under the supervision of another licensed cadastral surveyor, where professional misconduct is proven.

Licences are renewed annually.

In addition, the Board participates in reciprocity arrangements with the eight Australian State and Territory boards.

Membership

Under section 13 of the Act the following board members were appointed by the Minister of Land Information on 1st December 2016 for 3 year terms.

The Board members as at 30 June 2018 are:

- Mr Neale Charles Thomas Faulkner and Ms Vicki Alma Nalder, re-appointed as nominees of bodies representing licensed cadastral surveyors pursuant to section 13(2)(a);
- Ms Merryn Kay Maguire and Mr Anthony Paul Nikkel re-appointed pursuant to section 13(2)(b);
- Ms Belinda Mary Greer, being a person who is not and never has been a licensed cadastral surveyor and is not employed in the surveying profession, appointed pursuant to section 13(2)(c);
- Surveyor-General, Mark Dyer, as an ex-officio member of the Board pursuant to section 13(1)(b); resigned August 2018;
- Acting Surveyor-General, Anselm Haanen; commenced August 2018;
- Mr Craig Kenneth McInnes appointed as a substitute member of the Board.
- Ms Adina Thorn appointed as a substitute lay member of the Board.

Meetings

The Board met four times in the 2017/18 year, on:

18 August 2017
24 November 2017
12 February 2018
8 June 2018.

Two teleconferences were held; on 27 October and 11 December 2017.

Licences

The table below shows the number of licences issued over the last five years. In the table:

- “Renewed” means the number of licenses renewed at 30 June 2017.
- “New” means the number of initial licenses issued during the year.
- “Re-applied” means the number of licenses issued to surveyors who failed to renew by 30 of June 2017 or had let their licence lapse for some time.
- “Non-renewals” means surveyors who chose not to renew their licenses and deceased surveyors.

	17/18	16/17	15/16	14/15	13/14
Renewed	650	648	631	633	628
New	25	16	24	14	21
Re-applied	23	12	16	17	13
Total	698	676	671	664	662
Non-renewals	37	25	23	33	29

The continuing increase in the total number of licences issued is encouraging, however there has been a decline in first time applicants this year. The increase is mainly due to more surveyors (15) renewing their licences since June 2015. There will be an increase of 3 more surveyors re-licensing for the next 12 months – 2017/2018. The Board expects that the number of surveyors holding a licence to keep rising steadily over the next few years as demand for cadastral surveyors is maintained.

The following tables show surveyors by age group, gender, and ethnicity.

Age Group
			Female	64	9%
20-29	33	5%	Male	634	91%
30-39	174	25%
40-49	193	27%	NZ	653	94%
50-59	129	18%	Maori	7	1%
60-69	116	17%	Other	38	5%
70-79	48	7%
80-89	5	1%

The number of women continues to climb each year – an increase of 21 since 2011, but the number of Maori still remains very small. The Board would like to see increased gender and ethnic diversity in the profession in the future and urges the profession to continue its efforts to achieve that.

There are less younger surveyors in the 20-29 age group compared to last year. This is due to some candidates choosing to delay the completion of their professional examinations post university graduation.

The Board issued Letters of Accreditation to 3 New Zealand surveyors seeking registration in Australian States, the same as last year. The Board also approved 6 licence applications from surveyors returning from Australia – 4 more than the previous year.

The number of enquiries (5) from overseas surveyors about becoming licensed in New Zealand is similar to last year (6).

This year the Board recognised surveying degrees from South Africa, Iran, Czech Republic, and the Philippines as meeting its academic standards for licensing. In most cases when applicants present surveying degrees from countries other than New Zealand or Australia these degrees are assessed by the Bureau of Assessment of Overseas Qualifications to establish if they met the Board's standards for licensing. Since 2002, the Bureau has also assessed degrees from China, Poland, Macedonia, Zimbabwe, France, Greece, Mauritius, and USA (Minnesota) as meeting its Standards and being equivalent to a four year surveying degree in New Zealand or Australia.

Discipline

The Board received 4 complaints that were within its jurisdiction relating to the misconduct of surveyors.

There were 4 complaints about professional ethics received from members of the public. As the Board is not responsible for these matters they were referred to Survey and Spatial New Zealand, the professional body that represents the wider survey industry. One complaint was received from the Surveyor-General which is still current.

The Surveyor-General advised the Board of 6 notices of a significant failure to comply with his standards in accordance with section 7(1)(d) of the Act during the year, compared to 15 in 2016/17 and 9 in 2015/16. The Board monitors the surveyors who have been notified to the Board under this section in the previous three years. As part of this monitoring, the Board takes a more in-depth review of these surveyors on a case by case basis before deciding whether to renew their licences. In some cases, the Board has asked applicants for additional information to confirm their competency before renewing their licence. In one case the Board did not approve a Licence renewal application.

Licensing Standards

The Board continues to investigate what its Standards are aiming to achieve as set out under Sec 11(1)(d) of the Cadastral Survey Act. The Board sees a need for a broader statement of the objectives and outcomes of the Standards which could be modernised to take a more outcome-based approach to the competencies that licensed surveyors require.

Survey and Spatial New Zealand is undertaking a full review of the competency requirements for all surveyors including those in the cadastral stream. The Board is working closely with Survey and Spatial New Zealand to ensure that any revised competencies meet the Boards standards for a licensed cadastral surveyor.

This is very important as the Board recognises the admissions process conducted by Survey and Spatial New Zealand as evidence that applicants applying for initial licences meet the required competencies.

The National School of Surveying at the University of Otago, is the only university in New Zealand that offers degrees in surveying. The Board is currently working with the School on a review of the curriculum to ensure that the courses offered meet the Standards required under the Cadastral Survey Act.

Reciprocity

Reciprocity between the New Zealand and Australian surveyors' boards has existed in some form since 1892. The Board collaborates closely with the Australian boards on the assessment of other overseas qualifications for equivalence to the New Zealand and Australian degrees and setting policies for the education, training, and regulation of surveyors.

Contact with the Australian States' boards is maintained through the CRSBANZ that comprises of the Chairs of each board. Meetings of the CRSBANZ are generally held once per year, this year one meeting and one teleconference was held.

The activities of CRSBANZ are of significant value to New Zealand surveyors, and promote closer economic relations between Australia and New Zealand.

Finance

The Board is funded entirely by licensing fees gathered annually from licenced cadastral surveyors. The level of those fees is set by the Board under section 11(1)(c) of the Act. The Board closely reviews its operating costs and is currently reviewing all support operations to ensure they work efficiently.

The Board contracts accountancy firm Staples Rodway Wellington to review its tax position and to prepare future tax returns.

The annual Licence fee was maintained at the same level as the previous year.

Administration

The Board has contracted Engineering New Zealand (ENZ) to provide administrative and accounting services, office facilities, and meeting rooms. ENZ maintains full time office hours, dedicated telephone and email point of contact, and hosts the Board's website.

The Board is currently reviewing alternative administration support arrangements for the immediate future; this will include updating access to the Register and website to enable more efficient online access for licensed surveyors and the public. The website will also be updated as part of these changes.

Mr Robert Buchanan of Wellington acts as the Board's legal adviser, and Mr Phil Napper is contracted as the Board Secretary.

To the Board Members of Cadastral Surveyors Licensing Board of New Zealand

Report on the Performance Report

Opinion

We have audited the performance report of Cadastral Surveyors Licensing Board of New Zealand on pages 4 to 13, which comprises the entity information, the statement of service performance, the statement of financial performance and statement of cash flows for the year ended 30 June 2018, the statement of financial position as at 30 June 2018, and notes to the performance report, including summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion:

- a the reported outcomes and outputs, and quantification of the outputs to the extent practicable, in the statement of service performance are suitable;
- b the accompanying performance report presents fairly, in all material respects:
 - the entity information for the year then ended;
 - the service performance for the year then ended; and
 - the financial position of Cadastral Surveyors Licensing Board of New Zealand as at 30 June 2018 and its financial performance, and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Public Benefit Entity Simple Format Reporting – Accrual (Not-For-Profit) issued in New Zealand by the New Zealand Accounting Standards Board.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the statement of financial performance, statement of financial position, statement of cash flows, statement of accounting policies and notes to the performance report in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (New Zealand) (ISAs (NZ)), and the audit of the entity information and statement of service performance in accordance with the International Standard on Assurance Engagements (New Zealand) ISAE (NZ) 3000 (Revised). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Performance Report section of our report. We are independent of the Cadastral Surveyors Licensing Board of New Zealand in accordance with Professional and Ethical Standard 1 (Revised) Code of Ethics for Assurance Practitioners issued by the New Zealand Auditing and Assurance Standards Board, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Other than in our capacity as auditor we have no relationship with, or interests in, the Cadastral Surveyors Licensing Board of New Zealand.

Responsibilities of the Board Members for the Performance Report

The Board Members are responsible for:

- a Identifying outcomes and outputs, and quantifying the outputs to the extent practicable, that are relevant, reliable, comparable and understandable, to report in the statement of service performance;
- b the preparation and fair presentation of the performance report on behalf of the entity which comprises:
 - the entity information;
 - the statement of service performance; and
 - the statement of financial performance, statement of financial position, statement of cash flows, statement of accounting policies and notes to the performance report

in accordance with Public Benefit Entity Simple Format Reporting – Accrual (Not-For-Profit) issued on New Zealand by the New Zealand Accounting Standards Board, and

- c for such internal control as the Board Members determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the performance report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the performance report, the Board Members are responsible on behalf of the Cadastral Surveyors Licensing Board of New Zealand for assessing the Board's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board Members either intend to liquidate the Cadastral Surveyors Licensing Board of New Zealand or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Performance Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the performance report is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (NZ) and ISAE (NZ) 3000 (Revised) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this performance report.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs (NZ) and ISAE (NZ) 3000 (Revised), we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the performance report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the use of the going concern basis of accounting by the Cadastral Surveyors Licensing Board of New Zealand and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the entity's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the performance report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the entity to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the performance report, including the disclosures, and whether the performance report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

- Perform procedures to obtain evidence about and evaluate whether the reported outcomes and outputs, and quantification of the outputs to the extent practicable, are relevant, reliable, comparable and understandable.

We communicate with the Board Members regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Restriction on use of our report

This report is made solely to the Board Members, as a body. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the Board Members, as a body, those matters which we are required to state to them in our audit report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Board and the Board Members, as a body, for our audit work, for this report or for the opinion we have formed.
